

Here is some feedback from the parents' perspective...

"Much more confident and super happy, she's a jot to be with!"

"Serious adventure is usually very rewarding, working as a team and pulling together produces amazing results!"

"A different view of the world"

"A sense of duty..."

"Now she'll try things without relying on her friends"

"I felt it really encouraged children from different backgrounds to get along together and learn from one another"

"...matured and taking more responsibility for day to day
things..."

"He now realises there is a huge
world out there to be discovered"

"My first impression was that he was standing taller
and just seemed more confident"

"Confidence to chat freely
with anyone he meets"

"He is now considering a career at sea"